

1. Free economic zones

The Law “On Free Economic Zones” has created a competitive environment for technological and economic development areas to be developed by serious investors. Albania is seeking private sector developers to develop and operate two fully serviced areas, located in Koplik and Spitalla