

8. Macroeconomic stability

- The macroeconomic situation in Albania is characterized by stable prices, low inflation rates and solid exchange rates.
- Average annual inflation has remained relatively stable for more than a decade with 1.9% inflation recorded in 2013, 1.6% recorded in 2014 and 2% recorded during 2015.
- Unemployment is slightly decreased in 2015 while European countries are suffering.