

4. Young and well educated population

- 57% of Albania's population is under the age of 35
- Each year, more than 100,000 students enrol at Albanian university
- A high number of Albanian students enrol at European universities in countries such as; Italy, Greece, Germany, France, etc
- English, Italian and Greek are all widely spoken while French and German are taught at school

